Ireland and Saint Patrick's day

Ireland is a big island because it is 400 km long and 200 km wide.

It's an island with 2 capitals (Dublin and Belfast) because there are 2 countries (Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland). There are 2 currencies: the Pound (£) in the North and the Euro in the South. They also have 2 languages: English and Irish.

It is hot and cold because the weather varies according to the seasons.

We travel there by plane or by ferry because it is an island.

Les latinistes en sortie pédagogique à Tulle

Le jeudi 16 Mars 2023, nous, latinistes de 4<sup>ème</sup> et de 3<sup>ème</sup>, avons participé au festival des langues anciennes de Corrèze. Cette année, le sujet était « le côté obscur de la force ». Le festival a eu lieu au Conseil Départemental de Tulle.

A notre arrivée, les organisatrices, Mmes Lelièvre et Granier, nous ont dirigés vers l'amphithéâtre. Plusieurs spectacles se sont succédés au fil de la journée, dont ceux des 3<sup>ème</sup> de notre collège : « Sombres duos d'histoire » et « Femmes et ombres ».

Un quiz a également eu lieu, en deux parties : la demi-finale et la finale. Deux élèves représentaient chaque collège. Le collège Arsonval a gagné face au collège Victor Hugo et au collège de Beaulieu-sur-Dordogne.

Le midi, nous avons pique-niqué dans les jardins du Conseil Départemental et profité du soleil.

Lors de cette journée, nous avons appris et revu de nombreuses légendes appartenant à la mythologie grecque et romaine comme le mythe d'Œdipe, ou le fait qu'Ulysse fut surnommé « l'homme aux mille ruses », ainsi que des connaissances historiques (l'assassinat de César en 44 av. J.C. à la curie). Cela nous a également apporté des notions de vocabulaire latin (les mots « bonum » et « malum » signifient « le bien » et « le mal »).

Latine loquimini?... μιλάς ελληνικά?

Nous avons remarqué qu'au théâtre, la gestion du stress et l'assurance sur scène sont primordiales pour faire une bonne prestation.

Quelques spectacles nous ont particulièrement plu, dont « Si vis bellum » et « De l'ombre à la Lumière », présentés par les collégiens de Tulle et d'Argentat. Ce dernier racontait l'enlèvement de Perséphone par Hadès et la création des saisons de façon humoristique.

Nous avons énormément apprécié le quiz, qui a enflammé le public, de même que le pique-nique qui fut convivial.

The future

First, I think we will be more than 8 billion.

Then, in 2050, medicine will have made a lot progress but technological evolution such as robots, all connected systems, programming...will take over our lives.

Finally, about our planet, it will certainly be damaged, but I think it will be able to adapt and change.

Rose 3è2

Tom 3è1

I'm sure when I am 70 years old, there will be trips to space for tourists.

There will be lives on Mars and we'll have new technologies.

There will be flying cars too.

Etienne 3è1

I think we will have flying buildings and we'll only have electrical cars.

In the future, maybe in 100 or 150 years, we will live on Mars because the Earth will be too polluted.

To conclude, we'll be able to live until 200 years old and I think there will be hunger in the world but less than today.

I think the aliens will come and invade the world. There will be a big war and the aliens, the winners, will colonize the world.

William 3è2

Camille 3è2

I hope that I will visit England at least once. I also hope that we'll not be in the world war III.

Maybe there will be more equality between people.

I guess there will be cleaner ways of producing electricity.

I'm sure, in 150 years, everyday life will be so easy with technology.

We'll live in smart homes: no keys, voice activated systems...with flying cars and we won't use gasoline any more.
